TITLE: BE DONE WITH

1 Peter 2:1

The responsibility of putting aside of any form of wickedness is upon every believer. Indeed the Lord Jesus carried all our sins and trespasses and dealt with them upon the cross. Do any other trace of wickedness that might seem to show up in the life of a believer has nothing to do with God but it is the responsibility of that individual to deal with it.

So beloved, it is upon you to get rid of all deceit, pretense, hypocrisy, envy, jealousy and evil speaking of any kind. As our theme scripture has shown, God has empowered us to walk away from any form of unrighteousness that might seem to crop up in our lives. Therefore, get done with any vice or weight of sin and reign in righteousness.

Ephesians 4:31 James 1:21

Meditation Notes:

"God has empowered us to walk away from any form of unrighteousness."

Prayer: Father of Glory, I thank you for making me righteous in Christ. I take responsibility today and I do away with any trace of wickedness, deceit and evil speaking from my life in Jesus' name, amen.
